PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

American Liberty Petroleum Corp., a Nevada corporation (the "Company"), is an exploration stage company with limited resources and no revenues from active operations. The only asset of the Company is a contractual option to acquire lease interests (the "Option"), which it has not been able to exercise due to a lack of funds. Accordingly, the Company has a very limited management staff, which has recently been focused on the sale of the Option to a third party company, as disclosed in public filings made on January 27, 2011. The Company also replaced the outside consultant providing bookkeeping services, and that consultant has been reviewing the company's historical financial information while also working on the proposed transaction. As a result of the impact of both those items on its time and resources, Management was unable to obtain and compile the business and financial information necessary to complete the Company's financial statements and other information for the fiscal quarter ended January 31, 2011. Such information is required in order to prepare a complete filing. As a result of this delay, the registrant is unable to complete and file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense. The Company expects to file within the extension period.
